in Lewiston, Ida., and Calls It a Fine Town.

Colonel Thomas Fitch and "the mo Colonel Thomas Filen and the most favored spot on the globe." have again come in contact, this time at Lewiston, Ida. According to the Lewiston Tribune Colonel Fitch has purchased $12.60 worth of real estate in the flourishing Idaho city, has formed a law partnership with ity, has formed a law partnership with Judge S. R. Anderson and has decided to make his home there. In the course of an interview Colonel citch says he would not be surprised if Lewiston should some day rival Denver is Salt Lake. Evidently, the colonel's interview was not published in full, as the story in the Tribune makes no reference substance to politics.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

The advance sale of seats for "Th Wizard of Oz" opened with a rush at the Salt Lake theatre yesterday morn-ing. The line in front of the box office remained practically unbroken all day. There is now every indication that the "Wizard" will do a record business. The engagement is for Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, with a Saturday matinee.

The season at the Grand opens Thursday night with Nettie Decourcey "An Orphan's Prayer." The play is said to be a highly interesting and en tertaining production. The engage-ment runs through Saturday night, and includes a matinee on Saturday. The seat sale is now on.
